

News Release - COAAA Moving on April 4

The Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging (COAAA) will move to its new location at 3776 S. High St., Columbus, Ohio 43207 on Monday, April 4, 2016.

The building that COAAA is moving into is the former corporate headquarters of Bob Evans, located near the Great Southern Shopping Center just north of the I-270 outer belt.

Moving to the larger space will better accommodate the growing number of consumers accessing state and local community based services.

COAAA's local 614-645-7250 and 1-800-589-7277 phone numbers will stay the same along with the agency's main email address, coaaa@coaaa.org.

All employee phone numbers and email addresses will remain the same as well.

COAAA will plan an open house in a few months.

About COAAA

COAAA plans, funds and develops services that make our communities places where individuals can live with independence and dignity. COAAA coordinates and arranges services for more than 8,000 individuals who participate in community based long term care programs including PASSPORT, MyCare Ohio, the Ohio Home Care Waiver and the Franklin County Senior Options Program. COAAA advocates for policies and programs that benefit older adults and individuals with disabilities.

COAAA serves eight Central Ohio counties which include Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Licking, Madison, Pickaway, and Union.

COAAA is operated under the City of Columbus, Recreation and Parks Department, Tony Collins, Director, and Andrew J. Ginther, Mayor.
